

WHAT OUR STAFF LOVES TO DO

LIKE A
Local

BAR
ROUGE

1315 16th Street NW Washington, DC 20036

PLAY	SHOP	EAT	DRINK
Screen on the Green Screen on the Green is a favorite Washington, DC summer tradition. Bring a blanket to the National Mall on a warm night and watch a classic film on a gigantic movie screen. Films are shown on Monday nights beginning at dusk, around 8:30-9:00 p.m. People start to claim their spots on the lawn as early as 5 p.m. Movies play except in extreme weather and there are no rain days. Movie Schedule: July 25 – In the Heat of the Night August 1 – One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest August 8 – Gentlemen Prefer Blondes August 15 – Cool Hand Luke	Nana Clothing & Accessories Nana is a great place to start on a long walk of boutique and antique shopping down U street - there are tons of good little shops that have been there forever or cropped up in the past 5 years (another good boutique shopping strip is on 14th off of U Street. Allan Bella Asst. General Manager	Busboys & Poets Busboys and Poets is a community gathering place. First established in 2005, Busboys and Poets was created by owner Anas "Andy" Shallal, an Iraqi-American artist, activist and restaurateur. It is located at 14th and V Streets, NW Washington, DC. It is a community resource for artists, activists, writers, thinkers and dreamers. 202-387-7638	Bar Rouge Check out our happy hour specials: Ask Rico, our mixologist for his signature Rouge Punch and Absolute Mango. Oh, I almost forgot, have you had wine on tap? Enjoy a fresh (never corked) glass of select wines and help reduce carbon footprint at the same time.
WELLNESS	MUST DO	MUST SEE	ONE-OF-A-KIND
Ride like local Borrow a bike and explore the Nation's Capital on two wheels! The flat terrain, miles of bike lanes and trails make cycling the best way to see, experience DC and Northern Virginia! See the Front Desk for more details. Helmets available for the bikes and its FREE for Rouge guests. Allan Bella Asst. General Manager	Smithsonian Folklife Festival 2011 This is an annual event celebrating cultural traditions around the world. The Festival includes daily and evening music and dance performances. The themes for 2011 Festival will be: Colombia, Peace Corps and Rhythm and Blues. Event Date & Hours: July 7 to 11 from 11am to 5:30pm. Evening events starts at 5:30pm and Admission is free. Located at the National Mall between 7th and 4th.	Washington DC After Dark Tours 3 hour tours 7pm daily $38.95 adults and $18.95 kids. 888-878-9870 The Washington DC After Dark Tour shows you our national monuments and federal buildings flooded in lights. Or go on your own; monuments are less crowded at night and provide great photo opportunities. Mark Jennings General Manager	The Oval Room Would you like to enjoy a modern American meal and see "Who's Who" in Washington DC? Try the Oval Room Restaurant, located few steps away from the White House. You may even see your Senator dining in this famous DC spot. 800 Connecticut Ave. NW 202-463-8700